Crossroads

for the Future

The Road Not Taken

*Two roads diverged in a yellow wood,
And sorry I could not travel both
And be one traveler, long I stood
And looked down one as far as I could
To where it bent in the undergrowth;*

*Then took the other, as just as fair,
And having perhaps the better claim,
Because it was grassy and wanted wear;
Though as for that the passing there
Had worn them really about the same,*

*And both that morning equally lay
In leaves no step had trodden black.
Oh, I kept the first for another day!
Yet knowing how way leads on to way,
I doubted if I should ever come back.*

*I shall be telling this with a sigh
Somewhere ages and ages hence:
Two roads diverged in a wood, and I—
I took the one less traveled by,
And that has made all the difference.*

—Robert Frost

Crossroads . . .

1966-67 . . . unforgettable year!
students—476 of them—
competing, clamoring, communicating, considering, facing decisions . . .
important ones . . .
more than choice of class play,
pictures, or graduation dresses . . .
but radical, far-reaching decisions about the future

considering . . .

communicating . . .

Fight Song

We're from ST. JOE'S, ST. JOE'S everyone;

We do our WORK and then we have our FUN.

We have a SPIRIT that is hard to beat

We never die, we never see defeat!

We love the name of dear old St. Joe's High,

We always try to keep our COLORS high,

And what we do, we do with all our might,

Our mighty might, for St. Joe's High!

THINK!

Father Edward Hoover from Sandusky celebrates a hootenanny Mass with the high-school students on mid year day of recollection

Mass—center of student life

Jim Hoffman, one of the senior commentators, introduces the 11:30 a.m. high-school Mass

The sophomore choir, successors to the senior choir, practice a new hymn before Mass: George Moody, Michael Wagner, Gary Kowaleski, Thomas Wolfe, Michael Cimini, William Beier, James Logsdon, Michael Eberly

With his inimitable touch, organist Louis Burkett accompanies students on favorites like "Sons of God" and "Gather, Christians"

Chanting the propers at the high-school Mass is the responsibility of these senior choir members: Charles Koch, Dana McCue, Lawrence Horzle, William Hershey, Stanley Gabel, Stephen Beier, Thomas Hoff, Dennis Miesli, Kenneth Frey, Lawrence Skahill, Michael Kledzik

Reed Head makes Gregory Ebers and Edward Holmes try to control Percy Decker and his "impossible" team.

If it's "impossible,"

Derek Roberts and Rosamund Palmer explain to the p-sses why what makes Dead Ernest tick.

Carol Eberly, amazed at the smoke, wonders with the rest of the class what she's making it's a science course!

Physics students Diane Frederick, Charles Koch, David Keiser, and Ken Fey are very good at making sound; it's just explaining it that stumps them

David Post and Kathleen Kelly add the finishing touches on their sketches. Both the art course and the art-appreciation course are new this year.

Art—newest course in SJH curriculum

"Images of man" projected in classic and modern forms provide a basis for lively discussion among students.

Pat Kiser gives a few hints to Eric Hoffman as he tries to guess the identity of one of her sketches.

future careers.

Bookkeeping students take time out from their sets to smile for the photographer.

Emphasis: Christianity

Mr. Robert Smith, with the help of Father Howell's "Of Sacraments and Sacrifice," instills freshman boys with basic Christian principles

Fr. Schlager's sophs add to their understanding of the sacraments by portraying a life-like scene—George Moody "baptizes" a baby in the presence of Scott Walker, Carol Toeppe, Connie Fairall, and Dan Atzinger

Carol Eberly prepares for the worst as she receives a quiz back from Father Thomas Vitality!

Freshman girls learn a Philippine dance called "The Tinkling" during a physical education class

Boys in gym class breeze through fifteen minutes of calisthenics before beginning a soccer game

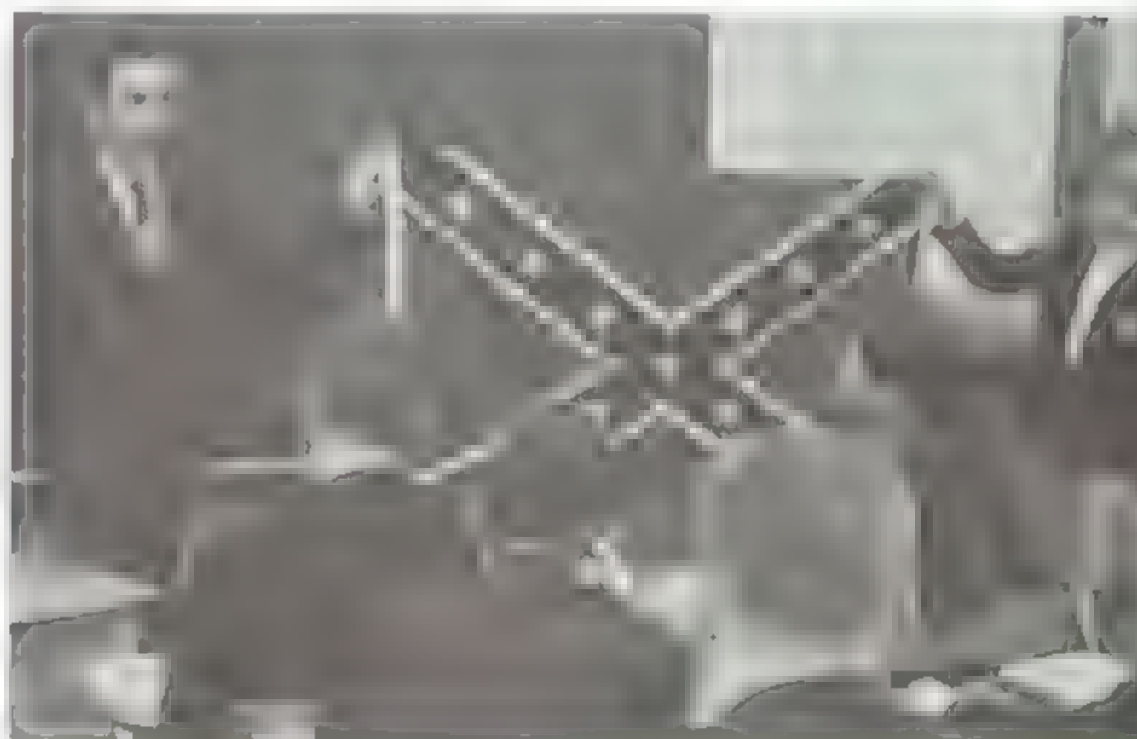

Both organization and confusion in girls' basketball never cease to amuse the fans or the players

Tim Willis leads the discussion in economics as Larry Bor and Ron Young add moral support

Mr. William Smith, American history teacher, displays a Civil-War relic to his class with the warning, "The South shall rise again!"

Social studies—

science of man among men.

Henry Hinojosa shows an interested civics class Ohio counties and their respective county seats

The importance of "Pacem in Terris" and "Mater et Magistra" comes home to seniors in Father McClanahan's sociology class.

In senior girls' sociology class Mrs. Snelder assumes a double responsibility as teacher of new ideas and as discussion referee.

Fr. Loeffler discusses the goals and purposes of marriage in the senior girls' marriage-preparation class.

Mr. Smith gives reasons and results of Crusades in his senior Church history course.

Students in the classroom, Mrs. M. J. [Name] is the teacher.

A familiar crossroad faced by St. Joe students every day . . . It is one of the many crossroads the seniors have already crossed and left behind

Activities

"Brothers, sisters, we are one,
"and our life has just begun,
"Alleluia!"

fun, planning, work, work, work . . .
agenda, meetings, committees, assemblies,
trumpet jazz, lilt of a flute,
1-2-3-4 march!

pause of retreat days, surge of song . . .
maturing responsibility . . .
on to the crossroads!

"In the Spirit we are young,
"we can live forever!"

Dave Pollick, Norm Widman, and Marybeth Moneghan search for appropriate paperbacks to take on retreat

Mass-in-the-round emphasizes the truth that religion is the center of Christian lives

Chapel is a focal point for senior girls on their three-day closed retreat at the new Carey center. Boys travel to Parma

Freshman booth at the annual mission bake sale seems attractive to the crowd

Giving, serving, helping...

YCS members discuss problems concerning senior class and look for possible solutions. Seniors belonging to the group are Jord Hoffman, Dana McCue, Yvonne Fisher, George Rusch, Stephen Beier, Regina Moxer, Arlene Burkett.

Father Thomas gives his mark of approval on servers' schedules set up by acolyte officers Don Hotz and Bob Kramb.

Color Day strengthens Streaks' spirit

Junior girls added a little flavor to the activities of Color Day with their version of "Hooray for St. Joe's."

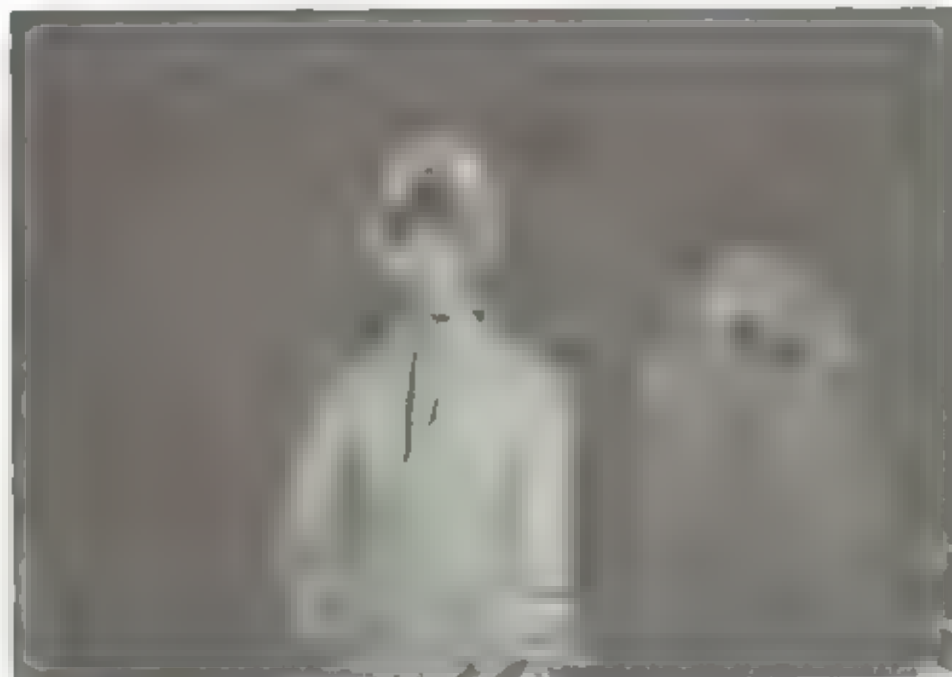

Transforming a homeroom into a center of school spirit seems to be easy for Pat Hoffman and Bonnie Snyder

Father Loeffler and Al O'Neal take time out for serious discussion during the Gruesome Twosome

Gruesome Twosome—

beasts, beauties, and ?'s

These three unusual-looking personages were chosen by judges to rank Number One for their costumes: ugliest, Mike Kledzik; prettiest, Pat Hoffman; and funniest, Suzette Ritzman.

Mary Lou Swint, Jackie Fiber, and Kathy Keyes, clowns of the dance, take time out during the evening to pose for a picture

Sisters Mary Danielle, Mary Luciana, and Mary Elisabeth greet Gruesome Twosome decorations with mixed reactions

After sweeping everything under the wrestling mat, Teresa Hoffman faces a new problem: getting rid of the bumps

Whether dancing or discussing, everyone seems to join in the spirit of "Victory in Wonderland"

Fairy tales come alive

Cheryl Mosser and Carol Eberly seem to have a little difficulty clearing a seven-foot entrance with nine-foot poles!

Spending the many hours of labor and fun involved in producing a successful dance are the decoration committee: Karen Mayle, Pat Carnahan, Bob Kramb, and Sandi Hoffman

Preceding King Al O'Neal and Queen Theresa Wagner to the throne for the coronation ceremony are senior knights Lorry Hoeltz and Don Hotz with their ladies, Barb Batesole and Marybeth Moneghan at "Victory in Wonderland"

King Al O'Neal crowns his queen, Theresa Wagner, surrounded by his court of Donald Hotz and Marybeth Moneghan, James Hotz and Karen Mayle, Annette Lelune and Edward Fiber and Barbara Batesole and Lawrence H. H. H.

Seniors usher freshmen into high-school world

Mike Mikoy, referee for the peanut race, relates to Carla McCue the punishment for eating one's peanuts

Another educational-type game instituted at the Welcome Freshman Party was "Put a box over your head and see how far you can bounce off the wall."

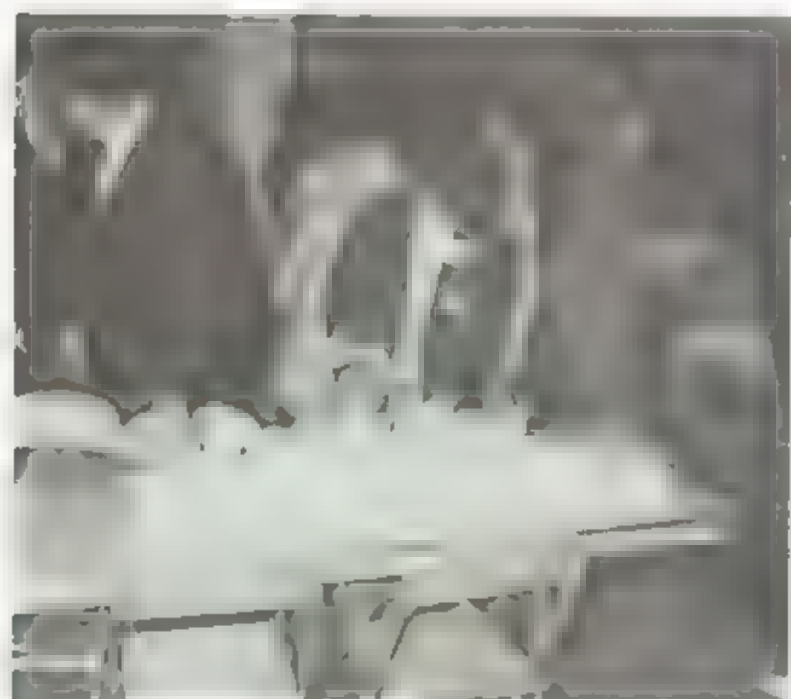

George Hoffman decides to forfeit a wrestling match to Bill Overmyer

Parents change roles during Open House

A new concept in Open House this year was having parents follow a short version of their child's schedule as each teacher explained objectives

Relaxing with refreshment and chatter at the end of Open House, parents and teachers discuss the evening's experience

School absorbed in Yuletide mood

Climaxing the Christmas assembly this year is the surprise arrival of Santa Claus (Tom Picciuto) with his bag of goodies

Adding holiday spirit to the assembly is the Glee Club under the direction of Mr. McGinty.

Santa expresses the feelings of student body and faculty as he wishes Father Loeffler a Merry Christmas and presents him with a gift

The band, also directed by Mr. James McGinty, completes the musical part of the assembly with special Christmas selections for audience participation

New year erupts with a burst of activity

The refreshment committee hurries to serve the goodies as the natives become restless on "Treasure Island"
 Left to right: Helen Rusch, Jane Gonya, Joyce Kuhn, Diane Beier

Rita Hotz and Marciann Tinkovitz, entering Treasure Island, aren't quite convinced the dangerous-looking figures on the walls are just decorations

One of the more serious committees planning the senior dance are so engrossed in their work they hardly notice the camera

With a lot of imagination it's easy to see that Jon Bandwich is reading a pretty hip

The masterpiece of the senior dance—a smoky volcano—was fashioned after hours of struggling with wood, paper, paste, paint, and a power failure

Talented guests enrich student lives

Salam Rizk, renowned author and lecturer, addresses the student-body on his boyhood adventures in Syria and his dream of coming to America. Here he presents a copy of his autobiography, "Syrian Yankee," to school librarian Miss Wolf, in token of appreciation for a fine audience

Mr. Robert Overhouse, blind representative of the Vocational Rehabilitation of the Blind center in Toledo, spoke to students of the many opportunities available to the handicapped. Here he pauses for a few words with Bernie Gonva, Debbie Borkovich, and Lee Eakin

Mary Louise Hickey, world famous solo dramatist, receives a standing ovation for her stunning performance of "The Diary of Anne Frank"

Mrs. Leola Balsizer, interior decorator, presents an informative lecture and demonstration to the art appreciation class

Reverend George Jensen of Grace Lutheran Church, after lecturing to the senior girls sociology class on the Lutheran view of mixed marriages, pauses for a chat with Father Loeffler

Mr. Collier, corner safety guard, has lighted many sleepy-eyed students the path to church for 11:30 Mass

Bob Rusch, visual aids assistant, demonstrates to members of Future Teachers Club the proper technique in starting a projector

Mike Fisher, chief of the popcorn brigade for two years, steadies himself to resist the temptation of eating all the fresh popcorn himself

Mr. Richard Hertz, in charge of underclassman photos, gives Cecily Mehling a few additional seconds to prepare herself before being "shot"

Honor societies create academic competition

Boarding the bus for the National Honor Society's trip to Toledo to view a film on Russian culture, Marybeth Moneghan seems to have second thoughts about leaving

National Business Honor Society president Bonnie Snyder and vice-president Carol Keegan check over the minutes taken by secretary-treasurer Jane Gonya

Cindy Kramb, first-place winner, flanked by Rita Hotz and Marcy Tinkovicz who tied for second, experiment in the kitchen to demonstrate how they earned the Betty Crocker Homemaker of the Year Award

Freshmen Charlotte Kusner, Esther DeLeon, Cynthia Spieldenner and Carol Buehler receive from Sister Mary Madonna a certificate of acceptance for their work sent to the National Essay and Poetry Anthology. Later awards were also presented to Diana Toeppe, Kathleen Fisher, Diane Courtney, and Marilyn Hertzner

Excellence

Dr. Weber, professor of organic chemistry at Bowling Green State University, pauses to aid Jim Hotz, winner of a six-week scholarship in organic chemistry at the university. Selection for the course was based on scores of a test given to large groups of superior students

Tom Arnold reads what he would do if he were President for a day to fellow senior-winners of the K of C contest: Larry Hoelzle, Pat Beier, and Teresa Wasserman

The camera catches Tom Powers, Dave Post, and Pat Kiser trying to create other masterpieces to equal those they had accepted by the National Art Anthology

Marching forward through music

Cynthia, as the executive director, was assisted by her staff: Barker, Fiber, Mary, Sandy, Gabel, and Diane.

The precision twirling of these majorettes adds a feminine touch to the marching band. Paula Wilhelm, Kathleen Keyes, Joan Potter, Trudy Miller, head majorette Mary Lou Swint, Diane Shimer, and Tina Brawley.

Sparkling Streaks' spirit is the St. Joe's marching band. Bottom row: Kenneth Fey, Frederick Fehlhaber, Judith Beier, Diane Beier, Charles Koch, James Grove, Thomas Logsdon, Gail McCure, Kathleen Lakomy, Diane Haslinger, Barbara Luc. Row 2: Michael Cimini, Mark Golden, John McCure, Chris Mehling, Thomas Herb, David Gonya, Marilyn Hertzger, Christine Carpenter, Cynthia Spieldenner, drum major Ronald Hoffman, and director Mr. James McGinty. Row 3: Stephen Wasserman, Therese Chudzinski, Mary Gonya, Daniel Gonya, Patricia Wise, Sue Rich, Gregory Eberly, Anne Helle, Jeannine Hauck. Row 4: Sharon McCure, Mary Jane Koch, Celeste Smith, Sarah Ochs, Kathleen Miller, Linda Broshous, Theresa Schwartz, Catherine Miller, David Gabel. Row 5: Nancy Grove, Martha Golden, Mary Golden, Kermit Fehlhaber, David Mead, Christine Chudzinski, Donald Post, Harold Haaser. Top row: Carmen Perna, Thomas Smith, Paul Keating, Gregory Mehling.

Cheerleading—a fulltime job

Teresa Hoffman, senior cheerleader, always gives her best and adds zest to SJH.

As head cheerleader, three-year veteran Anita Amor has helped to keep the Streaks' spirit high.

Leading the fans who back the Streaks in victory and defeat are these five peppy cheerleaders. Barbara Beier, Anita Amor, Karen Mayle, Teresa Hoffman, and Sharon Smith.

Concluding another fine performance, band members Don Post, Mark Golden, Carmien Perna, and Steve Waxerman march toward the sidelines and rest

Football off the field

The Sisters enjoy the confusion as students form a caravan before a Sunday afternoon football game

This year the junior girls, under the supervision of Sister Mary Margaret Ann, are aided in preparing popcorn for some football games by a new popcorn machine

Band and majorettes wait patiently on the black-top for the order to move out

Future Teachers members

experience future career

Cindy Kramb and Jodi Hoffman, secretary-treasurer and president of FTA, observe that Sister Mary Regeen's second-graders are quite uninhibited about singing the scales

Sandi Hoffman, vice-president of Future Teachers, prepares a report for the monthly meeting

Marciann Tinkoviez discovers that the first problem in teaching Sunday school and pre-schoolers is getting them to sit down for five minutes

Mrs. Nancy Kidney, director of Fremont Opportunity Center, listens in on Future Teacher Martha Golden's remedial reading lesson for two fourth-graders

Brotherhood underlies

Key Club members Steve Beier, Jim O'Brien, and Larry Hoelzle make sure all the toys for tots are in good condition

Key Club secretary and president, Mike Kledzik and Jim Hoffman, check over toothbrushes collected for American soldiers in Vietnam

Horizon and Key Club

Enjoying the annual Christmas formal sponsored by Horizon Club are Diane Frederick and Chuck Koch (l.), and Carol Grafton and Don Hult (r.)

Answering Father Loeffler's plea for extra office help are these Horizon Club members: Angela Oprie, Jeanne Peri, and Annie Gogol

Class of '67 presents OUR TOWN

This year's senior play, Our Town, by Thornton Wilder, depicts the life of New Hampshire's life with its humor, picturesqueness, and pathos. Set against the backdrop of the time of the story, and the lives of the people. As the Stage Manager in the drama says: "This is the way we were in our growing up and in our meeting and in our looking and in our living and in our dying."

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Darr, directing their second annual SHH senior play, discuss a fine point of stage business for Thornton Wilder's "Our Town."

"Blest be the tie that binds," sings the Grover Corners church choir under the reliable direction of Simon Stimson (Chuck Koch).

George (Dana McCue) and Emily (Marcy Tinkovitz) set up their own system of communication between the Gibbs' and Webbs' homes—second-floor windows.

Mr. Darr gives suggestions for stage exits to Larry Skahill, Steve Beier, Jim Grachev, and Theresa Wagner.

Without the aid of props, Mr. Webb (Ken Fey) reads the morning paper which he has just received from Joe Crowell (Al O'Neal), while Howie Newsome (Steve Wasserman) delivers milk

Dr. Gibbs (Bill Hershey) admonishes his son George (Dana McCue) for spending too little time at home and not helping his mother with household chores

After experiencing death, Emily (Marcy Tinkovicz) misses her parents and decides she would like to return to the world of the living. Here, she leaves the cemetery and approaches her old home

Bill Overmyer, the receiving end of the Hoffman-Overmyer passing combination, pulls down another pass

Cardinal Stritch

The Streaks' second victory was gained by shading the Cardinals 8-6 in a game where defense sparkled. As in tug-of-war, the offensive teams each gained yardage only to be stopped short of the goal line by rugged defensive teams. In key plays, the defensive saves of St. Joe's Bill Overmyer, Don Hotz, Steve Beier, and Jim Hoffman were the contributing factors in keeping the Streaks' bid for victory alive. Late in the third quarter, fullback Steve Szymanowski scored the only St. Joe touchdown, with Jim Hoffman adding the extra 2.

Clyde

Despite a rather shaky start, the Streaks recovered to bomb the Fliers 30-0 for their fourth victory of the season. St. Joe's experiments in backfield and in defense couldn't seem to click until senior guard Larry Hoelzle blocked a Clyde field goal attempt at the 16-yard line. After that the Jim-Hoffman-to-Bill Overmyer long bomb hit pay dirt to produce touchdown plays of 14, 25, and 53 yards. Senior end Larry Skahill marched in for the extra points on 2 of Overmyer's touchdowns. Jim Hotz then joined the parade across Clyde's goal line with a touchdown and extra points.

Proudly contributing to the Streaks' 7-2 record are Bottom row: James Halbeisen, George Moody, Scott Langenderfer, William Beier, Scott Kayden, James Log-don, Edward Fiber, Patrick Hagerty, Gregory Rathbun
Second row: Anthony Stotz, Stephen Kuns, Robert Kramb,
William Celek, Thomas Picciuto, Lawrence Hoelzle
Allan O'Neal, Michael Mikoy, Anthony Lukomy, James
Hotz, James Seaman

Third row: Michael Luc, Stephen Beter, James Hoffman, Steven Szymanowski, William Overmeyer, Dennis Snyder,
Donald Hotz, Lawrence Skahill, Joseph Hotz, William Schabel, William Hoffman, Thomas Pfefferle.
Top row: Joseph Durnwald, Michael Wagner, John Ash,

Dennis Reinbolt, William Seithelmer, Michael Eberly

Football Season - gone but not forgotten

The line—the core of the St. Joe attack: Lawrence Skahill,
Thomas Picciuto, Michael Mikoy, Dennis Snyder,
Lawrence Hoelzle, William Celek, Donald Hotz, William Overmeyer

Bill Celek's standing and tackling has made him a three year letterman.

Don Hutz, two year letterman, has also all star All Conference Defense in his senior year.

Having quashed as a three year letterman, Larry Hartzle has gained All Conference Offense in his senior year.

A dash of defeat whets appetite for victory

Lorain St. Mary's

Although St. Joe opened the football season on a losing note, it was a valiant fight. On taking possession of the ball for the first time the Crimson Streaks marched down the field for a touchdown, credited to Steve Szymanowski, with Bill Overmyer adding the extra points. This glory was all too short-lived, however, as St. Mary's not only caught up but took the lead. Without sufficient time to launch a counter-offensive, the Streaks were forced to bow to Lorain 14-8—only the third loss of St. Joe's in the eleven-game history of competition against St. Mary's.

Gibsonburg

"Revenge" was the name of the game as the Streaks crushed the Golden Bears 42-8 in the second game of the season. With last season's opening loss to Gibsonburg fresh in their minds, senior backs Steve Beier and Al O'Neal each contributed two touchdowns. Adding more fuel to the offensive fire were quarterback Jim Hoffman, fullback Steve Szymanowski, and halfback Jim Hotz with one touchdown each. Much of the happiness was erased, however, when Al O'Neal was lost for the season because of an injury sustained in this game. It was predicted that Al, a key man in the Streak offense, would be missed. This prediction, unfortunately, came true.

As the clock runs out, the players' faces tell the story of the Lorain St. Mary's game.

Steve Szymanowski leaps, but not high enough, as a pass soars over his head

Steve Beter has lettered three times and as a junior became a member of All Conference Defense. In his senior year he has acquired All Conference both ways and All District Defense Back, 2nd Team, State-Wide

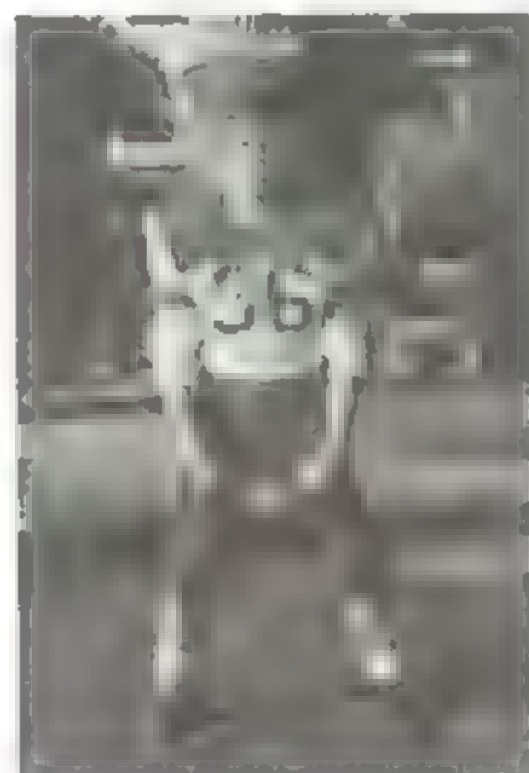

In his senior year Jim Hoffman, a three-year letterman, has added All Conference Defense to his list of achievements

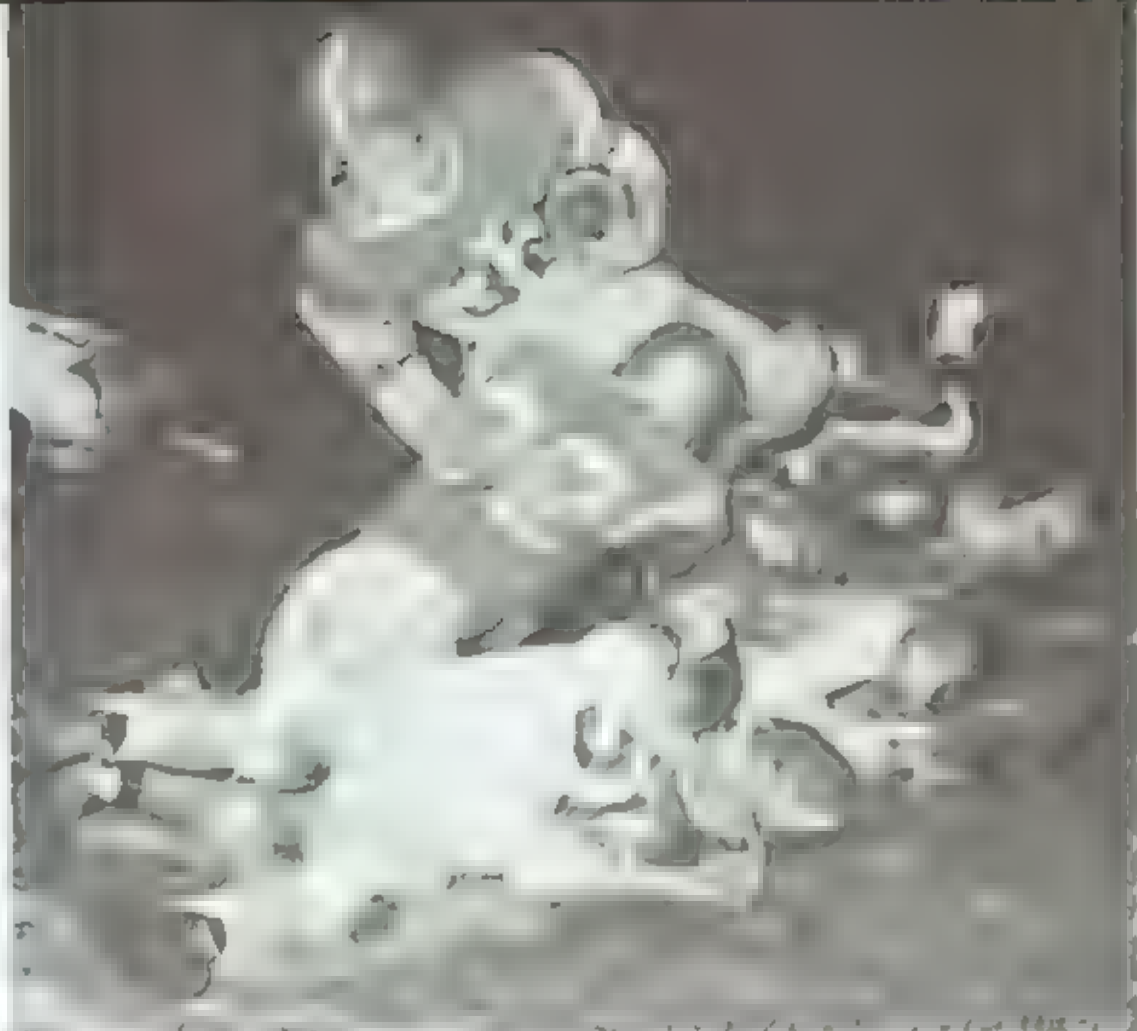

As senior Don Hotz takes all the bruises, junior brother Jim finds himself in the open

Battle cry-V-I-C-T-O-R-Y!

Punishment is poured on his first - Merciless Streaks

Mike Luc's fast action on the field has won him the title of one-year letterman

A familiar sight to St. Joe football fans is halfback Steve Beter going up and over for more yardage.

Mike Mikoy's quick thinking has earned him letters for two years.

Streaks' offensive squad takes a breather while defensive squad controls the opponents.

A three-year letterman, Bill Overmyer gradually added SBC both ways, District-Defense 2nd Team, and All-Ohio First-Team Offensive End to his list of accomplishments.

Speed and endurance, Al O'Neal's most outstanding qualities, have won him three letters.

Larry Skahill, who transferred to SJH late in his junior year, has lettered four times—the last at St. Joe

Tom Picciuto's skill has obtained for him three letters and All Conference Offense

Watching the second-string team is security to Coach Smith, and relief to the first string players

St. Mary's

When the dust settled at Strobel Field in Sandusky, the scoreboard showed 22-0 in favor of St. Mary's. What it couldn't show was the St. Joe attack that did everything possible with the football except carry it over the goal line. Although the Streaks dominated the game's statistics, they just couldn't find the right formula to equal a touchdown.

success

Denny Snyder owes his two letters to his ability to snap the ball.

Steve Szymanowski's potential, displayed in time of need, has earned him the title of three-year letterman.

Weeks of intensive practice gave Tom Picciuto the ability to tackle in his sleep.

Tiffin Calvert

Opening each half with a touchdown, St. Joe easily rolled over Tiffin Calvert 36-0. Paced by the running attack of Steve Beier, who scored twice and averaged 9 yards a carry, touchdowns by Steve Szymanowski, Jim Hoffman, and Mike Luc sparked the Streaks' uprising against the Senecas. While offense pounded out almost twice as much yardage as the opponents, the defense fought the Senecas' strong aerial attack and held them to a mere 38 yards in rushing.

Lakota

Scoring heavily in the second and fourth quarters, the Streaks scalped the Raiders of Lakota 34-0 for their sixth victory of the season. This was the sixth consecutive win for St. Joe in the six-year history of competition between the two schools. Following the example of quarterback Jim Hoffman's 4-for-6 passing attack and Steve Beier's three touchdown runs, Steve Szymanowski and Rick Barbour were called on to journey down field for one touchdown apiece.

Steve Boser rolls up, runs over center and back and tucks in the dust

Larry Hietala rushes in to end the game for St. Joe but it isn't over

To the victors belong the spoils!

Margaretta

The Streaks continued their victory march by crushing the Polar Bears of Margaretta 24-0. St. Joe's powerful offense and unyielding defense was just too much for the out-classed Margaretta squad. Jim Hotz, Steve Beier, Bill Overmyer and Steve Szymanowski each tallied a touchdown to keep the offensive machine rolling while the defense held the Polar Bears to a slinky 78 yards rushing.

Oak Harbor

St. Joe ended the season victoriously with their seventh win by outsliding Oak Harbor on a muddy field 14-0. Allowing the Rockets to penetrate past the fifty-yard line only three times, the Streaks held their opponents to less than one third of their own yardage. This victory clinched second place for St. Joe in the SBC conference and gave them an overall season record of 7-2. Touchdowns were donated by Larry Skuhill and Jim Hotz with Jim Hoffman adding extra points.

Larry Skaniff, new to the team this year, is a one year tellerman and has proved to be a great asset to St Joe.

Basketball

Ken Fey, one-year letterman, is known for boosting the St. Joe score by sinking the ball at crucial moments.

Spirit is for all seasons

A two-year letterman, Steve Beler's is a wrestling record of excellence. As a junior, he was SBC District Champ and CIT Champ. In his senior year, he has attained not only CIT Champ, CIT and BGT Outstanding Wrestler, BG Champ, and SBC District Champ, but also the superior rating of Second in the State.

Jim Grove, a two-year letterman, earned CIT Third Place and BGT Second Place as a senior.

A two-year letterman, Al O'Neal won CIT Second Place as a junior. In his senior year, he has achieved CIT Third Place, BGT Second Place, and SBC Champ.
